Dear members of our university community,

We are pleased to welcome you to the 24th edition of the European University of Technology (EUt+) Newsletter.

In this issue, you will find all the latest activities of the EUt+ Coordination Center, including two particularly interesting campaigns: the second “In-Taboo” campaign under the slogan “Learning My Way”, and the “Be an EUt+ Ambassador” campaign, inviting all CUT students to become ambassadors of our university within the alliance.

Enjoy the read!

In-Taboo Campaign #2 – “Learning My Way” to challenge the taboo that there is a single, predetermined way of learning for everyone.

The campaign will run from September to December 2025, and students can actively participate in the activities in the following ways:

Debate Boxes: Vote on how you learn best (available in the courtyard of the Andreas Themistocleous building, at the Zorbas entrance, starting in October!).

Course and Instructor Evaluation: Share your views on how inclusive CUT courses are and which instructors apply inclusive teaching practices.

Vote here: <https://web.cut.ac.cy/limesurvey/index.php/667373?lang=el>

Trainings and Information Sessions: For both university staff and students on inclusive learning practices.

You too can contribute to shaping a learning environment that respects and empowers each student's unique way of learning!

Be an EUt+ Ambassador at CUT!

Do you want to get to know the alliance of 9 EUt+ universities up close and become part of it through unique experiences? The “Be an EUt+ Ambassador” program

The first activity kicks off with an exciting video competition, organized in collaboration with the EU+ Coordination Center and the Language Centre. Launched on September 26th, on the occasion of the European Day of Languages, the competition focuses on Multilingualism & European Cultural Diversity.

By participating, you will have the chance to express your creativity, showcase the values of European collaboration, and get closer to the world of EU+.

What you gain goes beyond prizes — it's a unique life experience:

- Knowledge & collaboration with students from across Europe
- Participation in creative projects and events
- Travel and cultural exchanges across EU+ campuses.

Become the voice of CUT within the Alliance, take part in the activities, and open the door to new experiences!

The event “Boomers, Zoomers & Boardrooms – From Typewriters to TikTok”, organized by ICC Cyprus Women and the EU+ Research Office (ERO) of the EU+ Coordination Center at CUT, took place successfully on Thursday, September 25th, in Limassol.

Participants enjoyed a dynamic discussion on how experience and innovation shape the modern workplace. Through lively exchanges of ideas, the event highlighted the importance of empathy, adaptability, and vision in fostering intergenerational collaboration and enhancing workplace culture.

The active participation and interest of the audience demonstrated the value of such initiatives in promoting collaboration and innovation in the workplace.

The event was organized by the ERO within the framework of the KPIs of Work Package 5, to promote the participation of the university community and citizens in dialogues and collaborations with non-scientific stakeholders.

Final VALUEU Symposium in Riga

On August 28, 2025, the final symposium of the VALUEU project took place in Riga, Latvia, with the participation of the Riga Technical University (RTU), the Cyprus

During the symposium, the results of the Citizen Labs and the methodology followed were presented, highlighting the role of Citizen Science and Social Innovation in addressing contemporary societal challenges. Emphasis was also placed on the continuation of the Citizen Labs as hubs of collaboration among citizens, researchers, and organizations, strengthening the connection between research and social action.

Members of the VALUEU team from CUT participated in this mission, including Nikoleta Pantela and Emily Kouzaridi, Maria Karanikola, Associate Professor of Mental Health Nursing at CUT, as well as Andri Kyriakou, Executive Director of the Synthesis Center for Research and Education, who actively contributed to the VALUEU workshops.

3rd Student Festival at the Cyprus University of Technology

The 3rd Student Festival of the Cyprus University of Technology (CUT-FEST) took place successfully on September 17–18, 2025, marking the first major student event of the new 2025-2026 Academic Year. The festival kicked off on Wednesday,

During the event, Student Clubs, the Student Union, university services, and organizations active in the field of youth engagement were presented.

Once again, the EUt+ Coordination Center and the CUT Erasmus Mobility Office participated actively, strengthening students' connections to international and inter-university initiatives and providing information on mobility and collaboration opportunities.

European Day of Languages with the Participation of the EUt+ Coordination Center.

On Thursday, September 25, 2025, from 09:00 to 12:00, the Language Centre successfully hosted an event in the library courtyard to celebrate the European Day of Languages.

During the event, visitors had the opportunity to explore the languages taught at the Language Centre through dedicated booths for each language, including the Confucius Institute.

The EUt+ Coordination Center actively participated in the event, supporting the promotion of multilingualism and multiculturalism, values that are central to the wealth and driving force for collaboration, innovation, and academic excellence.

The event highlighted the role of languages as bridges of communication and knowledge, while the presence of the EUt+ Coordination Center emphasized the importance of linking language education, intercultural dialogue, and international collaboration.
